THE HOMAGE OF JUSTICE.

We have compiled, from various sources, the following disinterested testimonials, which were commanded from their several authors by the lofty patriotism, valor talents and success of Gen. HARRISON, long before he was named for the Presidency, and in times which ought to give them weight sufficient to bear down all the petty calumnies and quibbling objections which party malig-nity may now presume to forge against the warworn and time-honored patriot and soldier.

The authorities we present against the puny attacks of Loco-Foco Pederolism, and which we shall stereotype as an impregnable barriende against all opposition, are no less than the Cos. stson GRESSOF THE UNITED STATES, the LEGISLATURES of I DIA A, and of Kentucky, James Madis on, James Monroe, Col. Richard M. John SON, ANTHOUY WAYNE, LANGBON CHEVES, SI-MON SAYDER, GOV. SHELBY, COM. PERRY, COL. CROGRAM, Cot. Davi s, and others, including in the illustrious catalogue even Thomas Ritchie

We begin with the testimony of Col. Richard M. Johnson, now Vice President of the United try.

Of the career of Gen. Harrison I need not speak—the history of the West, is his history. For forly years he has been identified with its interest of the light of the li terests, its perils and its hopes. Universally beloved in the walks of peace, and distinguished by "During the late war, he was longer in active service than any other General officer, he was perhaps, oftener in action than any one of them, and never sustained a defeat."

James Madison, in a special message to Congress, Dec. 18, 1811, said,

While it is deeply lamented that so many valuable lives have been lost in the action which took place on the 7th ultimo, Congress will see with satisfaction the dountless spirit of fortitude victoriously displayed by every description of troops en-gaged, as well as the collected firmness which distinguished their community on an occasion requiring the utmost exections of valour and discipline.

James Madison in his message to Congress, Nov. 1812, sold.

An ample force from the States of Kentuck Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Virginia, is placed, with the addition of a few regulars under the command paper, we quote from the Executive Journal of of Brigadier Gen. Hannson, possesses the entire onfidence of his fellow soldiers, among whom are citizens, some of them volunteers in the ranks, no less distinguished by their political stations than by their, personal merits.

In Mr. Mantson's message of Dec. 1813, the empliment was extended, as follows:

The success on Lake Eric having opened a passage on the territory of the enemy, the officer com-manding the Northwestern arms, transferred the war thither, and, rapidly pursuing the hostile troops, fleeing with their savage associate, forced a general action, which quickly terminated in the capture of the British, and dispersion of the savage

In the Legislature of Indican, on the 12th Nov 1811, the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

"Sir-The House of Representatives of the Indiana territory, in ther own name, and in Lehalf of congratulations of your Excellency on the glorious result of the late sanguinary conflict with the Shaw-nee Prophot, and the tribes of the late sanguinary conflict with the Shawnee Prophet, and the tribes of Indians confederated with him; when we see displayed in behalf of our country, not only the consummate abilities of the general, but the herojem of the man; and when we take into view the benefits which must result to that country form those exertions, we cannot, for a moment, withhold our meed of applause."

The following resolve of both houses of the Legislature of Kentucky, will have a similar effect on the nerves of those who circulate the slander respecting the "white horse," and the full of the gallant Col. Daviess:

Legislature of Kentucky, Jan. 7, 1812. Resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Kentucky, that in the late compargn against the Indians upon the Wabash, sent to the appointments, agreeably to the nomitioy. William Henry Harrison has behaved like a hero, a patriot, and a general; and that for his cool deliberate, skill'ul and gallant condect in the battle of Tipecame, he well deserves the warmest thank of his country and his nation. Gen. Authory Wayne, in his Letter to the Secretary of War, giving an official account of his sanguinary Indian Battle, in 1792, said: "My faithful and gallant Lieutenant Harrison, rendered the most graduat Counterpart Harrison, rendered the most essential service, by communica ting my orders in every direction, and by his condon't and bravery, exciting the troops to press for Sentiments of the Hero of Fort Stephenson, ol. Groghan, now of the War Department: "I desire no plandits which are bestowed upon me at the expense of Gen. Harrison.

"I have felt the warmest attachment for him as man, and my confidence in him as an able commander remains unslinken. I feel every assurance but he will at all times do me ample justice; and nothing could give me more pain than to see his en-emics seize upon this occasion to deal out their nufriendly feelings and acrimonious dislike; and as long as he continues, (as in my lumble opinion he has hitherto done,) to make the wisest arrangements and the most judicious disposition, which the forces under his command will justify, I shall not he state unite with the army in bestowing upon him that orlidence which he so richly merits, and which has n no occasion been withheld."

Lastly we come to the next compliment of Thomas Richie, Editor of the Richmond Enquirhis ability in the councils of his country, he has been yet more illustriously distinguished in the South, who now brandishes his old "chapeless sword with two broken points," and threatens devastating war upon the conquorer of the Britsh and Indian Coviillon of the West! SALT RIVER HERALD.

Under this title the undersigned proposes to pub-sh, in the Town of Paris, Monroe County, Mis souri, a Weekly Journal, to be devoted, principally to Political, Agricultural, Commercial, and Scien-tific information, but to embody the usual variety which is found in a FAMILY NEWSPAPER.

In Politics, the paper will be thoroughly Whig GENERAL HARRISON to the Presidency, and as little oubts that the course of his administration will be such as to deserve the support of the Republican party, of which he is a member. If so, it shall navo his. He will be pleased, also, to act with the same collightened party in reference to measures of State policy, and will do so, to the extent of his capacity, and the acquiescence of his judgment.

As the name he has chosen was intended to incate, his paper will "HERALD" alike the wrongs nd the virtues of the world around it-regardless whom it may effect, in praise or in censure. A Newspaper, on any other principle, is a misnomer

The natiring zeal with which the Democratic party in this State, carried on the war in our late octions-together with the villany, industry, and the celerity with which they carried into execution their plans, will remain as an alarming and an enduring monument of Democratic enterprise! Like the fabled Dragon, which is said never to close his lidlesseyes, the stirring and pitfering spirit of De-mocracy, slumbers (if at all) with unclosed eyes! which these panderers and parasites—these syco-phants and demagogues of Democracy, manage to get upon the blind side of human nature, and to take an advantage of its weakness and passions, must all be laid naked before the gaze of an honest, an unsuspecting, but heretofore deluded people. In me word, the time has again a proached, when we must all enter open a great political contest. Like that through which we have just passed in our State, it will be a contest of principle against power a contest of the people against the office-holders. We are none of those who indulge in gloomy anticipation. We do not despair of the Republic. Our trust is strong, that the gallant ship, in which all our hopes are embarked, will yet outride the storm saved alike from the breakers and billows of dis, union, and the greedy whirlpool-the all engulphing malestrooms of executive power—that un-broken, if not unharmed, she may pursue her prosperous voyage for down the stream of time; un that the banner of our country, which now waves over us so proudly, will still float in triumph-borne on the winds of heaven, fanned by the breath of SAINT LOUIS, MO. fame, every stripe bright and unsullied, every star Invite the attention of Country Merchants, Public fixed inits sphere, ages after each of as shall have Officers, Teachers and the public, to their extenconsed to gaze on its majestic folds forever.

We shall commence and continue the good fight, till error, sick with contradiction, and crazed with a superabundance of inconsistency, shall be seen flying to fulsehood as a remedy, and expiring from the venom of its own fangs. We will continue the warfare, till the night of superstition shall pass away-the purple morn of reason shall dawn-the MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS, and Wall p tints of truth appear-and the gloomy mists fade in which they will sell at greatly reduced prices. the distance, and sink below the horizon to rise no more!-- Till the hallowed name of Liberty, more fragrant than the Spring gales of Arabia, more balmy than Gilead's pir, thrills the bosom where despair once reveiled, and whispers, "good tidings for all mankind."
